About the Author

Philip was raised in an conserv-orthodox Jewish home. At age 13, he was Bar Mitzvahed (a celebration recognizing his age of religious responsibility). Yet legalism and ritualism will not satisfy the inward soul. His brother is today a Lubavitch Orthodox rabbi.

On Nov. 12, 1972, at a Nicky Cruz revival, Philip accepted Jesus as the Promised Messiah and Savior. Just after he was baptized, Philip's parents learned of his new found faith. In an emotional meeting, he was given two choices: go back to the synagogue or leave home. In a dramatic moment, he realized that if God could save him, God would also take care of him. At 16, he was forced to leave home to serve his Savior.

At Bible College, he married the former Debra Spencer in 1975. They have two children, Michael (1979) and Rachel (1981) who are both serving the Lord today. In 1993, he began the Olive Tree Ministry and conducts Prophecy Conferences and Jewish Evangelism Courses in churches.

He is a graduate of Arlington Baptist College, (1979-B.A.), Arlington, TX; Grace Theological Seminary (1987-M. Div), Winona Lake, IN; further studies at Jerusalem University College, Israel (2005); and is a candidate for a Ph. D at LBTS. He has served on the faculty at several Baptist Colleges.
